The first mention of John Beale - Beals - Bales - most frequently spelled Beals in record is in a Court record where referred to as testifying to having plowed a certain field several years previously thereby proving his presence.

Chester Mtg. (Pa) records:
"att a mens meeting at Upland the 2nd da of 8 mo. 1682 John Balles and Mary Cleton did propound theire intentions of marriage and nothing being found but Clearness they were ordered to present it againe before the next monthly meeting this being the first time of theire proposeall and it is also ordered Robert Wade and his wife inquire into theire Cleerness and bring it in at next meeting."

"att our mens and womens meeting at Chester the 1st day of the 11th mo, 1682 John Balles and Mary Cleaton did then and theire propound theire proposeall and nothing to oppose them nether one thing being found but Cleare ness friends theire did give theire consent that they might proceed when they might see meet in the feare of the lord to take each other upon a daie appointed"

Mary was the daughter of Wm and Prudence Clayton who arrived on the "Kent"

John Beals name is spelled "Beale" on early Pa. maps. He could have come up from Va. but most things point he came from England so he could have been on the "Kent"

"Att a Court held the 3rd da of 10th mo 1688 the Grand Jury laid out a road from Aston to Eagemont: "Beginning att a Spanish Oake above Edward Carters and soe along up Cutt road and down ye valle which joyneth Prechadeers rail fence in, from thence through John Beales pasture along by William Ward mansee's along ye old Road over Chester Creek so along ye Old Road".

Chester Birth Records:
John Baels Jr. 1mo 28 1685
Wm Baels 2mo 1 1687
Jacob Baels 7mo 28 1689
Mary Baels 1mo 24 1692
Patience Baels 4mo 14 1695

John Beale Sr. lived in Aston Tp. just across the line from Chester Tp. along Chester Creek until ca 1704 when he moves to Lot 36 in Nottingham. He signed an affadavit in Chester Co. Court about an old line fence near present Chester stating that 1677 he cultivated a field there
He was also in a list of Tydable persons presented to Court at New Castle 1677 in the list from Upland in Chester.

The time of the removal of John Beale to Nottingham Mtg. from Concord Mtg. may be set approximatily by these Concord minutes.
11mo 11 1702-3 "Inasmuch as it has pleased God to visitt John Baels with Lameness for a considerable time for which he is made incapable of service of overseer of Chichester meeting...."

1mo 9 1709-10 "Friends from Nottingham request for John Bales to be Overseer in the room of William Brown".

Nottingham meeting was set up under Concord Meeting (Pa.) 2mo 9 1705 to be held at Wm Brown's house and 3mo 13 1706 was made a Preparative meeting and Mary Beals made an Overseer.

1mo 13 1709 John Beal and Robert Dutton made overseers.
The Beals family appear as very active in affairs at Nottingham settlement. The majority of Nottingham settlers were from Concord Meeting.
Nottingham was on the Octoraro Creek 24 miles from New Castle between the Creek and East River.
Presumably named for Nottingham in England.

In 1718 Friends at Nottingham were placed under New Garden Mtg. (Pa.) and 1729 became an independent meeting. When the Maryland line was run part of it fell into Cecil Co. Md.

Since Alexander Ross figures in the migrations I mention that 1713 he was at Haverford, 1715 at Chester, and 1722 at Nottingham. In 1732 he recieved a grant for 100,000 acres on Opequan in Va., to this grant moved our ancestors. I will elaborate following a copy of the will of John Beals. The date of his wife's death unknown.
Mary Clayton was the daughter of William Clayton who arrived on the "Kent" with his family 1677. He settled at Burlington and here his children married:
Prudence m. 11mo 10 1678 Henry Reynolds
Honour m 6mo 8 1679 James Brown
Wm Jr. m. 12mo 5 1682 Elizabeth Bezer
Mary m. 1682 John Beals.

Later Wm Clayton Sr moved from Burlington N. J. to Pa. He served as the presiding member of Gov. Markham's commission serving as acting governor in 1684-85; He was a member of the Governor Council during the drafting of the Great Charter, and was one of the 1st Justices of Provincial Pa. William Clayton was the son of Thomas Clayton of London by his wife Mary, daughter of William Thompson of Tirnmouth Castle, and from [illegible] was the Teignmouth.

third son of William Clayton of Clakenshaw, Yorkshire, Barrister of the Inner Temple. (Burke's Landed Gentry of Great Britain).

On the day (Mar 13 1678-79) William Clayton and family arrived on the "Kent" he received a deed for the share of Hans Nelson at Marcus Hook.

Governor Markhams commission empowered him to appoint a Council of nine (three from each of the Counties (Chester-Bucks + Philadelphia) and he to preside.

The first Council called Aug. 3, 1681 and Wm Clayton was one of the nine men. A fact proving his standing in the province. In the first record preserved of the Court held at Upland 9mo 13 1681 William Claytons name heads the list and Gov Markham is not mentioned. And this fact is mentioned Nov 30 1681 at next session held.

Bk A. p 79 Register Wills Philadelphia Co. probated 8mo 1 1689 is the Will of Wm Clayton of Chichester - carpenter. His eldest son William Jr is made administrator, his mother - Prudence - consenting.

Nothing further is heard of Prudence.

JOHN MILLS Jr.

Chester Min. 4mo 25 1733 John Bals requests a certificate to Nottingham for wife Sarah, and children. Only three children are recorded at Chester. Ann and Phebe are mentioned in their grandfathers will 1726.

Nottingham Min. BKA. 9mo 15 1733 a certificate was received for John Bals and family and daughter Sarah Miles (Mills)

From records we ascertained John Beals Jr 1711 to 1728 lived at Nottingham; then 5 years at Chester; thence to monocacy in Va.

Mills

Because this family has intermarried so frequently with the various branches of my family tree, I have traced it. The first mention I found is in

"The Genealogy of the Maulsby Family" - 1902 - Cora (Patty) Payne p. 56 " In the days of William Penn and the founding of Philadelphia there came from England a young man named Mills. He had a friend named Richard Harrold. These young men bought a whipsaw and wore it out sawing lumber to help in the building of Philadelphia. It is not known how long they lived in that town, but sometime later moved near Winchester, Va."

Mrs Payne does not give authority for the paragraph but she lived in Landon, Iowa in the midst of many of the older Mills descendents.

She goes on: "(1) John Mills, a near descendent of the emigrant married twice."

I have no proof for my statement but I think this John Mills was the immigrant. However in Frederick Co, Va. there was a Reuben Mills who signed various things. I feel as if he could have been the father of the John last mentioned. He was undoubtedly some relation. And because Thomas Mills, son of the last named John Mills, named a son Reuben, I thought maybe Reuben reared the four sons and one daughter of John Mills by his first wife. I have never found any records on Reuben Mills of Frederick Co. Va; except his wife's given name was Hannah.

Mrs Jessie Gordon Flack, 1747 S. Florence Ave; Tulsa, Okla., is the authority for the statement that the first and second wives of John Mills were respectively Rachel Bates, and Rebecca Stifan.

J. Frank Mills, Dallas Center, Iowa is the authority for the Mills data with no book references.

He was a grandson of Jeremiah Mills who in 1853 wrote down facts about his ancestry. Cassius M. Jay, Ex-President of California Sons of American Revolution, presents this copy of it.

"My great-grandfather came from England and landed in Philadelphia about the time the city was founded. With him came a young man named Harrold. They worked together for awhile sawing plank with a whipsaw for building that town. From there they went to Virginia near Winchester on Opeckon Creek.

There my father Amos Mills was born.

About that time Indian trouble began, better known as Braddock's War. Our people being Quakers and not willing to fight moved to North Carolina. My great grandfather, all his sons and daughters, settled on Deep River. A number of people moved from the same settlement in Virginia and mostly settled not far off in North Carolina. Some of their descendants were named Beeson, Bales, Knight, and also some of the descendants of the same Harrold that worked with my great-grandfather at Philadelphia. My great-grandfather was named John Mills. He was twice married. Of his first wife there were four sons - John, Thomas, Hur, Henry, and one daughter, Mary, who married William Beeson, of the second wife a daughter married Henry Humphries (Humphreys). The latter with any other was hung near Hillsboro, N.C., at the time of the Regulator's Battle.

My grandfather's name was Hur. He married Rachel Harrold, my grandmother, a descendant of the Harrold before mentioned. She had a brother Jonathan who moved to North Carolina about 1757. My father had one brother Micajah. He married Mary Hiatt. They had three children - Solomon who married Rachel Hodson, sister to my wife, Deborah, Susana who married Isaac Hodson, and Rachel married Joseph Reynolds.

My mother's name was Elizabeth Horn. She had a brother Jeremiah who married Judith Thornburg and moved to Tennessee, about 1785, and a sister Mary who married Richard Kemp and moved to Tennessee. I think my great-grandmother on my mother's side was Mary Stafford from Staffordshire. My great grandmother was Mary St. Clair, and my grandmother was Mary Coppock.

I will speak next of my father's uncles — John m. Sarah Bales, sister of Thomas Bales known as The Great Hunter....."

From the records of Quaker meetings we find Jeremiah and Elizabeth Horn were children of Nathaniel Horn who married Mary Coppock.

Mary Coppock daughter of and Mary St Clair Coppock; and and Mary Stafford Coppock according to the extant letter above.

Jeremiah Horn married 3 mo 6 1782
Judith (Thornburg) Linthank b. 12 mo 17 1757
and had:
John 1. 23 1783
Mary 11 11 1784

Elizabeth 5 9 1789 (who married Amos Mills).

Under Beeson notes you will find the ancestry of the Wm Beeson who married Mary Miller. The name Miller is sometimes found in early records spelled "Miles".
On free land, as a freeman, in Nottingham, Chester County, province of Pennsylvania, 1722 is listed William Beeson; also John Miles.

In the records in North Carolina Quaker meetings and from the Grubb genealogy we learn some data.

"Did you know that there was a wagon road to Apeghian from Pennsylvania as early as 1734? ... Thos. N. Fawcett, Cheyney, Pa. goes on to cite a survey of a tract called "The Forest", which survey was made for one John McGruder, April 9, 1734, in the description of which the following lines occur: "beginning at a bounded hickory standing about half a mile above the Wagon Road that goes from Conestoga to Apeckin [where said road] crosses a creek called Ketankin [Catoctin] Creek which falls into Potomack River about six miles above Monocacy".

p 24 "the Monocacy Valley in what is now Frederick Co., Md.

In 1726 a meeting for worship was settled at Monocacy, under the authority of Near Gardens Mtg., Pa. and in 1736 a meeting house was built and called Cold Spring. The preceding year, 1735, the Monocacy Friends had been recognized as a part of Hopewell Monthly Meeting. Then in 1744 Fairfax meeting was made a Monthly meeting including Monocacy." Fairfax meeting, Friends 734 (then in Prince William Co., Va) was set up and 1761 a meeting house built and no doubt took its name from the new County - Fairfax - carved from Prince William Co."

And Friends began the trek to N. Carolina. These small meetings for neighborhood convenience were the ones attended by Mills - Beals - Hunt families from which I descend, and the families intermarried - Harrold, Smith, Beason etc. whose early data I have incorporated here.

Neely's Fort was in this vicinity. This I mention as the Neelys and Harveys were inter married in Pennsylvania. Both being Presbyterians.

p12 "In the State Land Office at Richmond, Va., are to be found recorded in Book 16 - p. 315 - 415 the patents issued to the settlers who came to the Shenandoah Valley under authority of the Order of the Council made to Morgan Bryan and Alexander Ross." All bear the date Nov. 12 1735 and recite that the grantee is one of Seventy families brought in by them."

... It will be noted the land is held under the ancient English tenure of free soccage, and not in capite or by knight service and was considered a part of the Manor of East Greenwich, in the County of Kent" These patents were issued under the seal of the colony and were grants from the Crown, free of any obligation of feudal services to the Fairfax family, who claimed the land as lords proprietors of the Northern Neck of Virginia. The sixth Lord Fairfax, who later established his home at Greenway Court near Winchester, instituted many suits against early settlers in the Shenandoah Valley, BUT it does not appear that any friend who claimed under Ross and Bryan ever ejected from his land" ... only 56 patents to 34 grantees have been found of the seventy families specifically stated to have settled." These are discribed and I have selected those with whom our family was connected.

p14. Alexander Ross 2,373 acres in what is now Frederick County, lying six miles north of Winchester. On this tract Hopewell Meeting House stands, on land set aside by Ross for that purpose. he died at his nearby home 1748. Chester Co., Pa. court records show he was b. about 1682 and brought to Pa. as an indentured servant about eleven years old. He served to Caleb Pusey, last maker, and miller. Ross learned the trade of joiner. his service would be ended 1703. In 1706 he married Catherine Chamber of Chichester; dau. of John and Elizabeth Austwick Chambers. 1709 he bought a lot in Chester and built a house which he sold.

In 1713 he moved to Radnor and bought a tract of 150 acres in Whitland Tp... 9mo 5 1714 he secured a warrant for the survey of 500 acres... this was surveyed in the neighborhood of Nottingham Tp. on Conowingo Creek April 20 1716 and he removed his certificate to Nuwark Mo. Bryan is traditionally the first man to take a wagon thru Cumberland Gap... he had 10 children."

p. 35 John Mills 1315 acres in what is now Berkeley County West Virginia; described in the patent as being "On a Branch of Opeckon, near but not adjoining Lewis De Moss' land."
The records of Frederick Co. Va. show that in 1743 John Mills made several deeds conveying portions of this land to each of his sons Thomas, Henry, Hugh and John Jr. In each of these deeds he is described as John Mills Sr. of Prince George County, Md., Farmer." But his sons are all of Frederick Co. and John, Jr, is called "Cordwainer."

p22 a man named Robert Luna got 294 acres, on south bank of Potomac. It seems he knew the Jack family many of whom came from Cumberland Co. district (then Lancaster Co., in Pa.). This Luna lived in Augusta Co., Va. — this may be some reason that the John Mills who married Mary Ellis in Indiana named a son Luna. (An odd name!)

He produced a certificate at Cane Creek meeting N.C. 8mo 1 1752 dated Hopewell mtg. Va. 6mo 1 1752. He settled on Deep River and his death is recorded 11mo 24 1760 at New Garden mtg. N.C. (This meeting opened 5mo. 1754)

This shows John Sr. living at Monocacy; and Mary Harrold, too. It substantiates the tradition that John Mills and Richard Harrold went to Md. This sounds as if John Mills 1st wife might be dead since not mentioned. He probably married about 1741 or so 2nd time. And since he deeded land to his sons about that time - may have been for that reason he divided it - boys in their 30s!

Grubb Genealogy

"The Grubbs were among the earliest English settlers on the Delaware River, their arrival ante-dating the founding of Pennsylvania. In this day of swift ocean steamships and myriads of sailing vessels it is difficult to realize the obstacles to a successful colonization of the wilderness inhabited by savages or an uncongenial race.... The society of Friends having suffered much persecution in England ever looking toward the New World as an asylum, and in 1673 John Fenwick, one of their number, as trustee for Edward Byllinge, purchased the interest of Lord Berkeley. King Charles II had granted to his brother, James, Duke of York, the territory now embraced in the States of New Jersey and Delaware, and this the Duke had conveyed. The first to Lord Berkeley and Sir George Carteret, the latter. The interest of Berkely forming the province of West New Jersey. There was an understanding by which Fenwick was to have one-tenth of this province, and in 1675 he led a colony of Friends who formed a settlement at Salem. Disputes arose between Fenwick and Byllinge, which, by the kind intervention of William Penn, were at length settled, and Byllinge conveyed his nine-tenths of the province to William Penn, Gawen Lawrie, and Nicholas Lucas for the benefit of his creditors. These creditors divided the province into one hundred shares or "proprietas" for which they found purchasers among Friends in Yorkshire and others in London. Certain "Conditions and Concessions" were agreed upon between the trustees and the purchasers for the government of the colony, and in 1677 the ship "Kent" arrived with 280 passengers, who formed the settlement at Burlington. Other ships arrived 1678 and 1679, and the success of the colony was assured. Some who thus came as settlers in New Jersey crossed over to the western shore of the Delaware, where some had been settled among the Swedes and Dutch at New Castle and Upland, and prominent among them at Upland was

ROBERT WADE

John Beale bought the land of William Hoodmanee and lived next to Robert Wade that way. I have never been able to find the arrival of John Beale - spelled more frequently Beals, and a few times Bales and Bails in early records. He testified in court at Upland in that he had plowed a certain piece of ground years previously. This shows him to have been in the province that date. My personal opinion is he came with Fenwick and on the vessel became engaged to Mary Clayton, who came on the vessel with her parents - William and Prudence Clayton.

In the Grubb Genealogy a letter is quoted written by Charity Grubb Beeson, mother of William Beeson. In writing to a relative she says, "my son hath a daughter whom he hath called "Wellmett". " 11 mo 12, 1742-3. This name being evidence that John Grubb was a brother of Henry Grubb.
From the Beeson Genealogy by Jasper L Beeson

Edward is to have which he pleases, also I give to my son Wm one coat of the corsey that is at the weavers; also it is my wish that if my son William should die without issue lawfully begotten then the Land is to go to my Lawful heirs. 6th I give to my daughter Ann Cloud 20 pounds. 7th my will is that after my former wifes children have their portions, that all my personal estate be divided betwixt my widow and my daughter Elizabeth according to law. 8th my will is that my widow shall have the plantation whereon I live with all the profits thereof during her widowhood or natural life. After my widows remarrying or decease, then I give it to my daughter, Elizabeth and her heirs. 9th my will is that my executors and their heirs shall have that land which I have purchased of Daniel Harley and by warrant to me by the Commissioners bearing date Sept 4, 1709 to

About 1680 William Penn obtained a charter from Chas. II for the province of Pennsylvania and August 24, 1682 purchased from the Duke of York the territory now comprising the State of Delaware. On the 29th of October 1682 Penn arrived at Upland which name he changed to Chester, and upon the division of the province into three counties he gave one of them the name Chester.

The minutes of the Friends meeting at Burlington New Jersey begin with the date 5 month 15th 1678. But another volume contains copies of certificates of membership brought from England of earlier date. In this is an undated certificate:

"Deare and loving ffriends in the Truth, to as many of you as this may concerne, these few lines we write to you concerning our dear friend Henry Grubb: as long as he remained with us he behaved himself very orderly and also being single and free from any contract with any woman soe far as we know; and with the Remembrance of our dear love to him and all friends in the unchangeable Truth.

Henry Grubb was a witness at a wedding 11 mo 1 1679 at Salem mtg N.J. and 12 mo 20 1682 he asked Salem mtg for a certificate. He was married 3 mo 24 1683 at Burlington mtg, N.J. to Mary Perkins, daughter of Wm and Mary Perkins, who were passengers 1677 on the "Kent" - (her father died at sea). He is styled as sawyer in the record. It may be they became acquainted on the voyage.

The will of Henry Grubb was probated Jan 24, 1705-06 in which is the following: "I give and bequeath unto my dear mother Willmot (Wallmett) Grubb of Stock Himeland in the county of Cornwall, England, five pounds".

Besse I - 118 Friends Sufferings: 1663 - Henry Grubb of Stoke Climsland, at the suit of Wm Pike, priest of the parish, was committed to Tremation Castle, where he continued prisoner several years."
Perhaps this was the father of Henry Grubb, immigrant. The name Grubb appears on the first page and often thereafter, of the register for this parish.

Among those signing the New Jersey "Conditions and Concessions" was John Grubb, who from circumstantial evidence is believed to be a brother to the Burlington Henry Grubb. John seems to have been an Episcopalian. The name of his wife was Frances. He removed to the western side of the River.

We next find John Grubb in Brandywine Hundred, New Castle Co., a survey of 680 acres sgd 19 1682. His death occurred 1702-8 aged about 56. His widow Frances, married Richard Buffington, at the time residing at the forks of Brandywine Creek, in that is now East Bradford Twp. Chester County. Frances died before 1721 when Richard married again.

Will of John Grubb

I John Grubb, of the County of Chester in the Province of Pennsylvania, TANNER, being at present weak in body but of sound and perfect mind and memory do make this my last will and testament in manner following: That is to say, First my will is that all my just debts and funeral charges be paid and discharged: Also I give unto my daughter Charity the wife of Richard Beeson the sum of five pounds: Also I give unto my daughter Phebe Grubb the sum of fifteen pounds, to be paid her when she attain her age of Eighteen Years or is married which shall first happen: Also I give unto my dear wife Frances Grubb one-third part of all my Personal Estate and her Choice of one of the best Cows upon my Plantation besides. And also all ye Rest and Residue of my Estate both Real and Personal whatsoever, and wheresoever I give Devise and Bequeath unto my sons Emanuel, John, Joseph, Henry, Samuel, Nathaniel and Peter, to be equally divided between them, share and share alike, and to their Heirs and Assigns forever as Tenants in Common, and not as joyntenants. And Lastly I make and ordain my said son John and my said wife Frances Executors of this my last Will ... February 1707 - Will Bk C. p 81 Philadelphia proven Mar. 26 1708."

It is somewhat remarkable that no division of the real estate of John Grubb was made for more than fifty years after his death, by which time five of his sons were deceased.

Charity Grubb married before her fathers death, Richard Beeson, son of Edward Beeson of New Castle Co; and later of Nottingham on the borders of Maryland. They became Friends and in 1728 Nottingham Meeting gave her the endorsement of minister. Five years later they moved to Leacock, Lancaster County, Pa. and after a few years to Frederick Co; Va. He bought 1650 acres in Berkley Co. (now W. Va.) 1737 [Two miles west of Martinsburg.] He established Providence meeting. They carried a certificate 1mo 27 1736 New Garden Mtg. Pa. to Hopewell meeting, Va. .... and Richard and wife moved to N. Carolina then. They were received at New Garden Meeting, N.C. 11 30 1754 by certificate from Hopewell monthly meeting, Va. Charity (Grubb) Beeson b. 9mo 29 1687 died 11 22 1761... Richard Beeson b 6mo 10, 1684 died 1mo 1 1777 having been married 10mo 24, 1706 at Nottingham Mtg. .... The wife of John Grubb (and mother of Charity) has been proven to have been Frances Vare.

The Grubb-Beeson collateral notes have been entered here for reference in the data on you will recall Mary Ellis married John Mills she being one of the three daughters of Mordecai Ellis of Wayne Co. Ind.

The children of William and Mary Mills Beeson:
William, Helmet, Rachel, Charity, Hannah, Phebe, Richard, Mary, Thomas, John, Amasa, Joseph.
Three of whom married into the HARROLD family whose data is entered because of the intermarriage between Mills-Beeson-Harrold-and Beals. This will clarify the relationship and furnish ancestry, too.

Richard Harrold is mentioned as the friend of John Mills.

Concord Meeting (Pa.) minutes:
"At a monthly meeting held 12th of 4th mo. 1710 at Phillip Romans, Andrew Job makes a report to this meeting that the marriage of Richard Harrold and Mary Bales was accomplished orderly 1st da; 4 mo; 1710"

Richard Harrold. I do not know further of him until 1730 when he is referred to as deceased. Very probably he died in Pa. before the early settlement of Friends in Va. However he could have died soon after the settlement. The reference above:
Chester Mtg. (Pa.) "Thomas Mills and Elizabeth Harrold, daughter of Mary Harrold, widow, of Monoquisy near Potomac, propose their intentions the second time and ye inquirers produced a paper from under Friends hand living at Monoquisy which signified his clearness."

New Garden Mtg. Pa. certificates p. 374 "Thomas Mills, son of John Mills of Monoquisy, near Potomac, and Elizabeth Harrold, daughter of Mary Harrold, widow, of same place were married 4 mo 18 1730 at the house of Josiah Ballinger.

Hur Mills is mentioned as son of John Mills in the Maulsby Genealogy. (Also spelled Herr). He is the ancestor of the Jeremiah Mills who left the letter I quoted.

Hur and Rachel Harrold Mills had

Micajah m Mary Hiatt
Charity m Peter Dillon
Jemima m Strangeman Stanley

Rachel m Robert Hodson (Hodgson)
Amos m Elizabeth Horn

J. Frank Mills Dallas Center, Iowa, great grandson of Amos furnished Mills data for Maulsby Genealogy

Richard and Mary Beals Harrold had:

From the will of John Beals Sr. 1726 it seems as if Richard Harrold Sr. were dead.

We are only concerned with the descendants of Thomas and Hur Mills. I give Harrold ancestry because of the collateral angle with Mills-Beals families.
